-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is in response to the application filed 3/26/2004.
2. Claims 1-47 have been examined and are pending in the application.

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description:

- 10, 11, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22 (lines 8-31 page 15)
- Figure 4 (line 32 page 23)

Corrections are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-47 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Doan U.S Patent No. 6,192,369.

As to claim 18, Doan teaches a system comprising:

Art Unit: 2194

retrieving a portion of the data (retrieving data from, line 40 column 11) from the data store (database 112, line 40 column 11) via a persistence layer (110 controls access, line 11 column 6);

storing it in a domain object (DO 208, Fig. 2); retrieving a portion of the data stored in the domain object (retrieve or update the attributes of a DO 208, 33-34 column 8);

storing it in a business object (BO 206, Fig. 2); processing the data (BO 206 are used to perform business logic, lines 38-39 column 8).

As to claim 19, Doan further teaches providing a user interface (a user interface, line 8 column 6).

As to claim 20, Doan further teaches validating, calculating derived information and manipulating data stored in the domain objects (manipulating the encapsulated data, lines 12-13 column 7; retrieve, update, add, delete, lines 45-49 column 8).

As to claim 21, Doan further teaches posting a message from the domain object to a message queue (message queue class 212 with input and output message queues, lines 58-59 column 8).

As to claim 22, Doan further teaches anticipating a future retrieval of data (update state data, line 46 column 8).

As to claim 23, Doan further teaches pre-fetching the anticipated data (lines 22-56 column 8).

Art Unit: 2194

As to claim 24, Doan further teaches defining a hierarchy of a plurality of business objects (Fig. 2).

As to claim 25, Doan further teaches storing unique data to each domain object (the separation of each DO 208 in Fig. 8).

As to claim 26, Doan further teaches the data is a subset (logical unit of data from database 112, line 11 column 7) of the data stored in the data store.

As to claim 27, Doan further teaches refreshing the data stored in the business object in response to a change in the data stored in the domain objects (lines 38-54 column 8).

As to claims 28-37, note the discussions of claims 18-27 above, respectively.

As to claims 38-47, note the discussions of claims 18-27 above, respectively.

As to claim 1, note the discussion of claim 18 above.

As to claim 2, Doan further teaches the persistence layer includes an access object retrieves data from the data store and a maintenance object stores data in the data store (110 controls access to the database 112, lines 11-12 column 6).

As to claim 3, note the discussion of claim 19 above.

As to claim 4, Doan further teaches the user interface layer communicate with the business object layer via an adapter layer (204, Fig. 2).

As to claim 5, note the discussion of claim 20 above.

As to claims 6-7, note the discussion of claim 21 above.

Art Unit: 2194

As to claim 8, Doan further teaches a controller layer (202, Fig. 2).

As to claims 9-12, note the discussions of claims 24-27 above, respectively.

As to claim 13, Doan further teaches the business objects retrieves data from the data store solely via the domain objects (Fig. 2).

As to claim 14, Doan further teaches the domain layer provides a transaction mechanism for integrating data in the data store (methods of DO 208 perform operations on the database 112, lines 57-60 column 7).

As to claim 15, note the discussion of claim 2 above. Doan further teaches the persistence layer manages creation of the domain objects (lines 43-53 column 7) from data stored in the data store.

As to claim 16, note the discussion of claim 18 above.

As to claim 17, Doan further teaches a view object (dbdView object, line 25 column 7).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
